COMMERCIAL, TRADES AND COMPANY UNIFORMS

This well-established business has successfully been managed by three different owners over the last 30 years and has delivered consistent returns to the benefit of its shareholders.

Supplying to a wide and diverse range of commercial, trades and corporate clients, the current owner has built a successful B2B direct service and distribution operation with a solid customer base ranging from small to medium businesses through to recognized blue chip corporate clients.

The improvements made to the business model over the last few years, including an e-commerce revenue stream reaching both the corporate and consumer markets, have been underpinned by a strong focus on outstanding customer service, high quality product, and excellent value for money.

Auckland based, the business has a number of characteristics and competitive advantages which are unique to its industry sector and have been instrumental in its success.

The market sector is stimulating and this is an enjoyable industry to work in with high levels of customer satisfaction and repeat business. A successful business that can easily transition to a new owner and offers excellent opportunities for further growth.
